SOUL CARE AS LAY COUNSELORS IN POST-ABORTION & MISCARRIAGE RECOVERY

“The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.” Luke 4:18-19

Course Description

This one-day training course is a general introduction to biblical counseling that is designed to offer individuals a Christ-centered approach to soul care that relies upon the sufficiency of Scripture and the guidance of the Holy Spirit. This course will present an overview on caring for individuals who are emotionally wounded by abortion and miscarriage using basic counseling approaches with attention given to laying a biblical foundation that transform lives.

Who:

Pastors, ministers, lay counselors, and anyone interested in enhancing their understanding and spiritual growth in the area of soul care.

Our Aim:

The aim of this training is to inform, to equip, and to release emerging leaders as lay counselors into the work of post- abortion and miscarriage recovery ministry as members of the NLB leadership team, and individuals outside of No Longer Bound who are interested in soul care ministry.

Course Objectives:

- Students will recognize and explain how and why biblical counseling differs from all other kinds of counseling.
- Students will gain a practical understanding of post-abortion and miscarriage recovery ministry as lay counselors.
- Students will gain a practical understanding of the various methods of soul care.
- Students will be able to identify and practice the skills of the NLB approach to soul care using the therapeutic process in post-abortion and miscarriage recovery.
- Students will be able to identify, explain and find their roles in the various ministry areas of No Longer Bound.
